Selected areas for analysis for the observational cases in Table 1 of the manuscript

The color gradient plot in all the figures represents the saturation fraction for the respective disturbance, and the vectors represent the relative wind at 5 km elevation. The shaded area enclosed with a red box is the area considered for analysis for each case. For cases with no red box the entire shaded area is used.
Fiona 2

Gaston 1
Gaston 5

Karl 1

Karl 2